

I would respectfully request that the FCC reject petition 04-160. Localized satellite content will be good for the competitive market, good for the consumer and I believe, beneficial for public information and safety.